452 SPITFIRE SQUADRON

It is our sad duty and honour to acknowledge and pay a final tribute to Charles William Harold Lucre OAM on behalf of the members of the NSW Masonic Club. Charles passed away in February after a prolonged illness.

Charles Lucre served his country well during the Second World War. From 1942 to 1946 Charles was enlisted in the Royal Australian Air Force (RAAF). In 1944, he joined 452 Squadron which was equipped with Spitfires and employed in a ground attack role against targets in the Dutch East Indies.

In January 1945 he relocated to Morotai as the Squadron was deployed to support Australian operations in Borneo. In October 1945 he returned to Sydney where, after several months with stores units, he was discharged in 1946 after four years service to his country.

For this service he was awarded the 1939-45 Star, the Pacific Star, a War Medal 1939-45, the Australian Service Medal 1939-45, and the Returned from Active Service Badge.

In later life we remember a man who gave comfort and solace to his fellow veterans in his role as the Chaplain at The Canberra Hospital. Charles is survived by his sister Elaine and son Andrew who has now settled in the UK.

Charles was a loyal member of this club for many years, becoming a Director of the Board from 2005-2007. Charles was a robust, conscientious servant of this Club.

On behalf of all the members of the NSW Masonic Club and the general community we say farewell. We extend to your family and friends our deep sympathy, a decent man who lived through the horrors of war, but was not cursed by it, rest in peace Charles, thank you.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Dear Fellow Members,

Before preparing this report I have read a copy of the General Managers report. It is, as usual, wide reaching and detailed. Little point would be served by covering the same ground and so, on this occasion, my report will be on a personal note.

On 30th of March I was working in my office at the Club preparing material for the Board meeting to be held on 6th of April. After lunch I was returning to my room when I suffered severe chest pain. After about forty five minutes without relief, I telephoned Warren Lewis who quickly called an ambulance. I was then taken to St Vincent's hospital emergency ward where tests showed that one artery was completely blocked. Two stents were put in place and shortly before 6.00pm. I had passed through the recovery ward and was placed in the acute care ward.

Apart from two incidents involving an irregular heartbeat the operation and my immediate recovery were without any problems. I was discharged after five days and was back at my desk again the following day. I am now attending a rehabilitation course at St Vincent's.

Over this last three weeks I have been touched by the expressions of concern and best wishes from the Board of Directors, the staff and Members of our great Club. They were greatly appreciated. I am told that when my long standing friend Vice President Frank Deane was made aware of my condition he quipped that there must be some mistake, since it was well known in the Club that the President had no heart. Sic transit gloria.

Finally, I am delighted that against a background of difficulties in the Club industry our Club continues to trade profitably. This is no accident. It is the result of astute and clear headed governance.

With best wishes,

Graham L. Berry

GENERAL MANAGER'S REPORT

Hello and welcome everyone to our first publication for 2011. I am pleased to report to you that there has been a considerable improvement noted in our trading activity, primarily from our hotel operations, and I am aware through sources within this industry that this is generally not the case for all.

Times are still quite difficult in the business community and it is our aim and intention to improve on the services offered in this Club and through this hotel with the assistance of a Members Survey. We encourage all Members to complete the survey on page seven of this magazine which enables you to have your say and participate in improving the Club. A Reply Paid envelope is enclosed in which your completed survey can be returned to the Club. This survey can be completed online: www.masonicclubsurvey.com.au The online survey has also been widely distributed to all Members who are on our email database.

I am very pleased to report that our long serving ex Board Member and current Life Member Mr Lindsay Payne was rewarded in the Australia Day honours list with an OAM for services rendered to the community. It is a well known fact that Lindsay and his departed wife Heather gave freely of their time, effort and financial assistance to a number of charities and to a trust that he continues to support for disabled children in Malaysia, a wonderful acknowledgement of a very generous man.

The new forty eight level building being constructed for the ANZ bank and for legal firm Freehill's on our northern boundary continues to rise and is well on track for an expected completion in mid/late 2013. It will be a landmark building upon completion and will certainly add value to the precinct between Market, Pitt, Castlereagh and Park streets.

It is with sadness that I report the passing of our previous Director Charles Lucre OAM. Charles had been fighting the good fight for some time to address the serious health issues that confronted him prior to his passing. His funeral service was conducted at St Andrews Presbyterian Church on March 7 in Canberra. Charles was a long and loyal serving member of this Club and he will be sorely missed.

I would like to advise Members and guests that a social golf day is being planned for Monday, 12 September at Carnarvon Golf Club. This day is being organised by Club Director John Moore the details will be provided as we get closer to hit off. Initial enquires can be directed to here at this Club on 9284 1000.

Finally we will be commencing the next instalment of our accommodation upgrade program and this will occur in the second half of this year.

This will be a staged upgrade that will be phased in over the next six to twelve months. There has been a very clear focus in our planning on how we best deliver to Members and guests many long term objectives. Our aim is once again to improve guest amenities and to further build on the solid four star platform that currently exists here within the hotel operation. These renovations will not only enhance and improve the ambiance throughout our building but will also deliver to this Club a platform for operational security as we manoeuvre through the next decade.

Lindsay Payne OAM

Born in 1923 and now 88 Lindsay Payne is in marvellous condition, both physically and mentally. He has spent a lifetime in service of the community as the attached information will detail.

Lindsay Oswald Payne served his country in the 2nd World War from 1941 – 1946 here locally and also in New Guinea and Bougainville.

From 1954 – 1989 (35 years) - Lindsay practised as an Architect significant jobs were the CBA computer centres and closer to home, the overseeing of the restoration of the ground floor of this Club.

His integrity and skill saw him in demand as an expert witness and eventually saw him become a founding Fellow of the Institute of Arbitrators.

From 1957 to date (54 years) he has been a Freemason. He has held all offices in his own Lodges, including that of Worshipful Master. He also held the Supreme Rank in the Order of the Secret Monitor. For 12 years he was Chairman of the Board of Croydon Masonic Hall P/L during which time major alterations to the building were carried out.

From 1962 – date (49 years) he has been a member of this Club and a Board member for 15 years from 1993. He has held all positions except President. He has been an active member of each of the Sub Branch RSL, Veterans Association, the Touring group and the Birthday Club. In the first 2 he has held various positions including that of President.

His service to Freemasonry saw him conferred with the rank of Very Worshipful Brother. In 2008 he was made Life Member of this Club.

From 1963 – date (48 years) he has been heavily involved in Lions Club International. In his own clubs, he has held every Board position including terms totalling 5 years as President. At the District level he served 29 years in a variety of positions including that as District Governor. Lion Multiple Districts appointment benefitted from his energy and dedication over 24 years including 2 terms totalling 12 years as Chairman.

In 1989 the Lions District 201N2 appointed Lindsay to assist Lions District 308B Malaysia in the establishment of an Autism centre in Penang. His efforts saw the Vern Burnett School for Autism and the Education Department of Macquarie University provide materials and video tapes which were invaluable.

Lindsay and his dear belated wife Heather spent time in Penang to assist the project. He subsequently convinced Lions to provide funds to enable Dr Jacqueline Roberts of the Vern Burnett School for Autism to attend in Penang in 1991 and 1992 to provide specialist teaching and assessment.

Lions have heaped awards on Lindsay including several International President's Appreciation Certificates and being made a Melvin Jones Fellow. He was appointed Life Membership by the Board of Lions Club International in 1993 and a Life Governor of Lions NSW in 1994.

In 2004 the Lindsay and Heather Payne Medical Research Charitable Foundation was established. On Australia Day this year, Lindsay Oswald Payne was made a Member of the Order of Australia, a wonderful and just acknowledgement of a charitable human being, thank you Lindsay Payne OAM.

Famous Mason Series XV

George Washington 1732 - 1799

On April 30, 1789, George Washington, standing on the balcony of Federal Hall on Wall Street in New York, took his oath of office as the first President of the United States. "As the first of every thing, in our situation will serve to establish a Precedent," he wrote James Madison, "it is devoutly wished on my part, that these precedents may be fixed on true principles."

Born in 1732 into a Virginia planter family, he learned the morals, manners, and body of knowledge requisite for an 18th century Virginia gentleman. He pursued two intertwined interests: military arts and western expansion. At 16 he helped survey Shenandoah lands for Thomas, Lord Fairfax. Commissioned a lieutenant colonel in 1754, he fought the first skirmishes of what grew into the French and Indian War. The next year, as an aide to Gen. Edward Braddock, he escaped injury although four bullets ripped his coat and two horses were shot from under him.

From 1759 to the outbreak of the American Revolution, Washington managed his lands around Mount Vernon and served in the Virginia House of Burgesses. Married to a widow, Martha Dandridge Custis, he devoted himself to a busy and happy life. But like his fellow planters, Washington felt himself exploited by British merchants

Washington was initiated, in 1752, in the Fredericksburg Masonic Lodge No 4, Virginia, and the records of that Lodge, present the following entries.

The first entry is thus: "Nov. 4th 1752. This evening Mr. George Washington was initiated as an Entered Apprentice," receipt of the entrance fee, amounting to £23s.

Initiated: Nov. 4, 1752
Passed: Mar. 3, 1753
Raised: Aug. 4, 1753

and hampered by British regulations. As the quarrel with the mother country grew acute, he moderately but firmly voiced his resistance to the restrictions. When the Second Continental Congress assembled in Philadelphia in May 1775, Washington, one of the Virginia delegates, was elected Commander in Chief of the Continental Army. On July 3, 1775, at Cambridge, Massachusetts, he took command of his ill-trained troops and embarked upon a war that was to last six grueling years.

He realized early that the best strategy was to harass the British. He reported to Congress, "we should on all Occasions avoid a general Action, or put anything to the Risque, unless compelled by a necessity, into which we ought never to be drawn." Ensuing battles saw him fall back slowly, then strike unexpectedly. Finally in 1781 with the aid of French allies he forced the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown.

Washington longed to retire to his fields at Mount Vernon. But he soon realized that the Nation under its Articles of Confederation was not functioning well, so he became a prime mover in the steps leading to the Constitutional Convention at Philadelphia in 1787.

When the new Constitution was ratified, the Electoral College unanimously elected Washington President. He did not infringe upon the policy making powers that he felt the Constitution gave Congress. But the determination of foreign policy became preponderantly a Presidential concern. When the French Revolution led to a major war between France and England, Washington refused to accept entirely the recommendations of either his Secretary of State Thomas Jefferson, who was pro-French, or his Secretary of the Treasury Alexander Hamilton, who was pro-British. Rather, he insisted upon a neutral course until the United States could grow stronger.

To his disappointment, two parties were developing by the end of his first term. Wearied of politics, feeling old, he retired at the end of his second. In his Farewell Address, he urged his countrymen to forswear excessive party spirit and geographical distinctions. In foreign affairs, he warned against long-term alliances.

Washington enjoyed less than three years of retirement at Mount Vernon, for he died of a throat infection December 14, 1799. For months the Nation mourned him.

If you would like to visit a reciprocal club, it is important that you read the following instructions before contacting any reciprocal club:

1. Contact the reciprocal clubs directly for a specific list of the services and rates offered at the proposed time of the your visit, and to find out if your Letter/Card of Introduction must be faxed to them prior to your arrival. Members desiring overnight accommodation at reciprocal clubs should request reservations in advance and should advise that they are members of NSW Masonic Club.
2. Ensure you take your NSW Masonic Club membership card whilst visiting a reciprocal club.
3. Obtain a Letter of Introduction: Please contact Administration to obtain a letter of introduction on phone 02 9284 1006 or email: admin@nswmasonicclub.com.au

Birthday Promotion

Invite your friends to celebrate your birthday in style by enjoying a complimentary bottle of red, white or sparkling wine at your club.

Each month complimentary sparkling wine vouchers will be sent out to members with an up coming birthday. To participate in this promotion members must take their voucher to the administration office for validation after which, it can be presented at the bar.

Any member who does not receive their voucher or misplaces it may collect a new voucher from the administration office on level one.

Please Note: Offer is not available for 'take-away' and must be consumed within the Club.
